A unique experience

The French way of life...

Cycling along the small roads of the Vexin Normand, strolling in Giverny, finding inspiration in the footsteps of Claude Monet, enjoying French cuisine, skilfully revisited by our chefs, tasting a grand cru or preferring a glass of cider, waking up and opening the bay window to watch, on the terrace, the Seine flow peacefully by, decide to see the Eiffel Tower within the hour, finally opt for a game of pétanque, a treatment in our Spa or a nap by the pool, buy a baguette at the Ruche and start with the crouton, meditate, move around, breathe the soul of our houses and find, in the decoration, traces of their past, appreciate the ambient charm and modern comfort of the place...

The "Destination Gourmande" group offers a unique experience adapted to all desires - and all budgets - thanks to the diversity of its offer. Our teams take care of everyone's well-being and simplify the organisation and running of the holidays, to make them unforgettable. The history of our group is a long one, and since its inception, it has offered the guarantee of French charm and authenticity.
